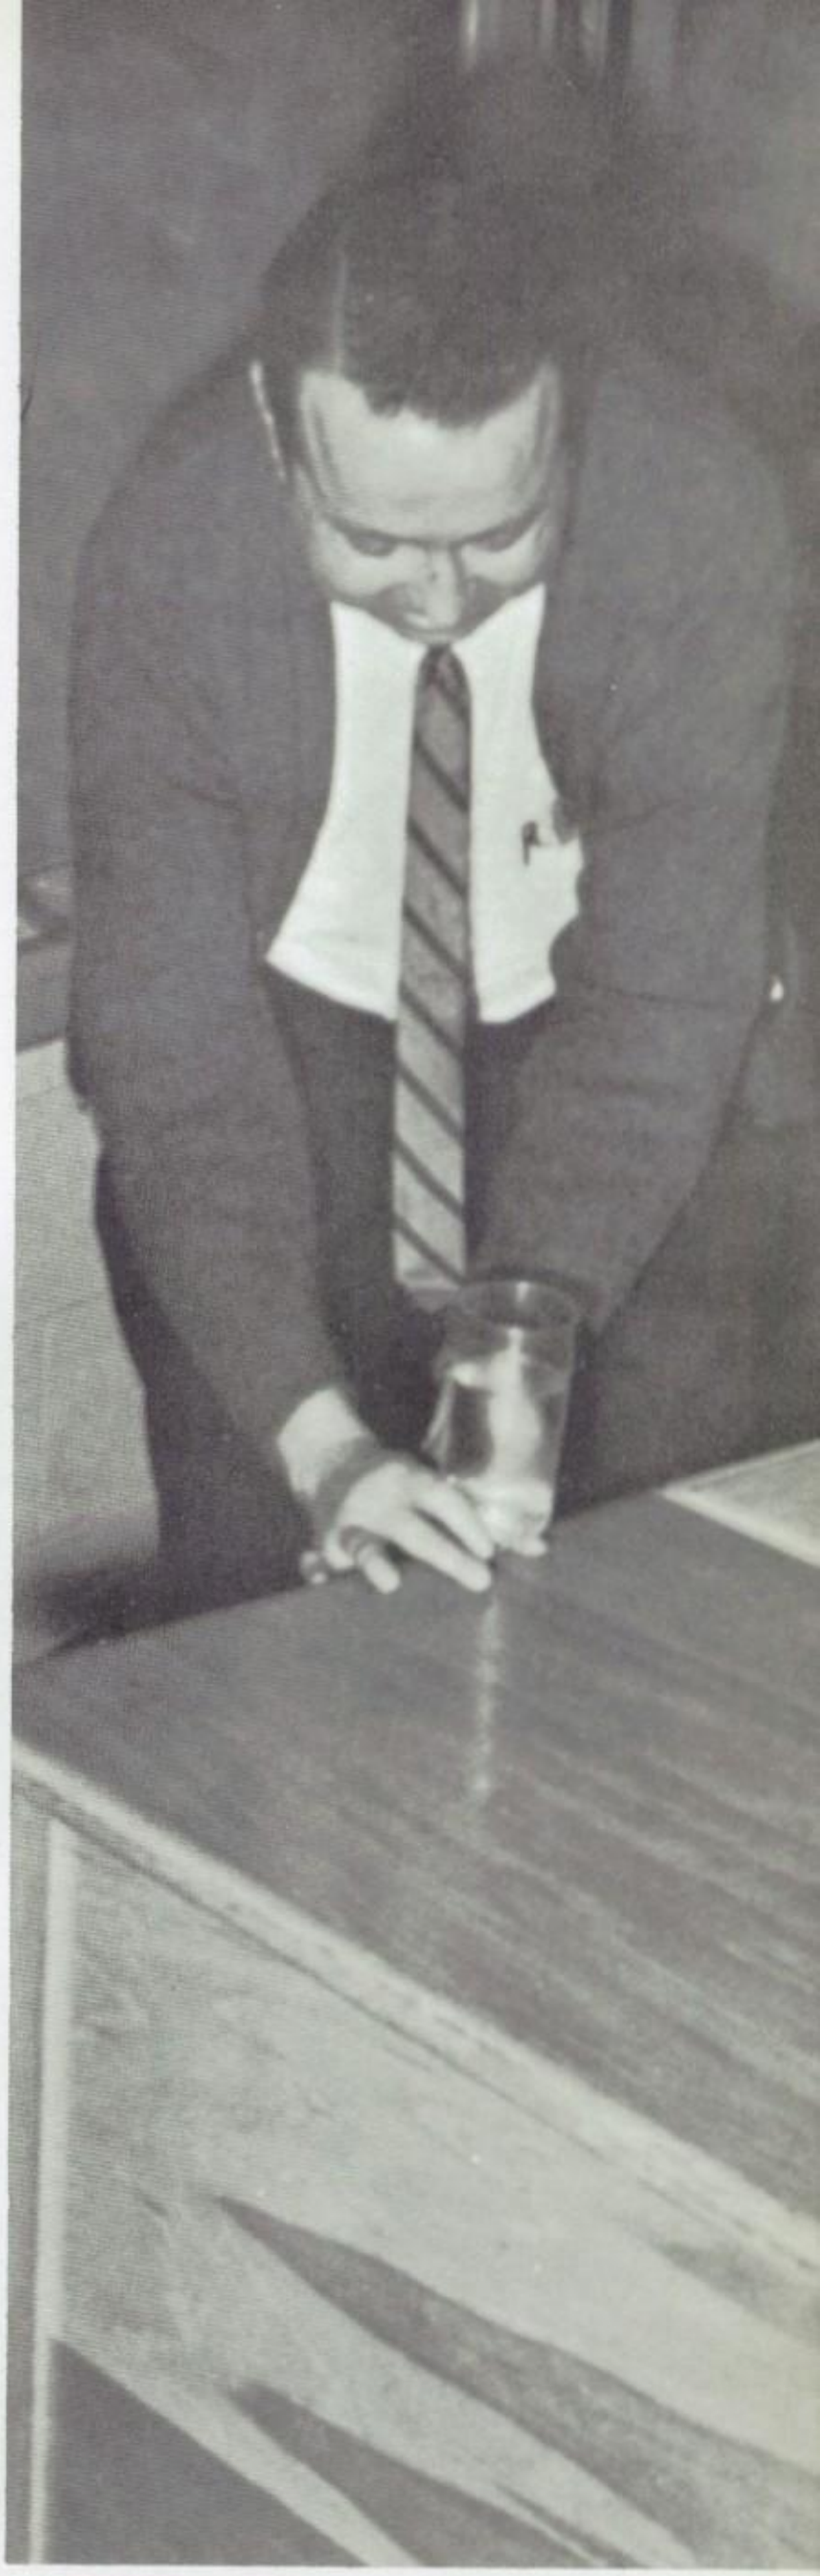
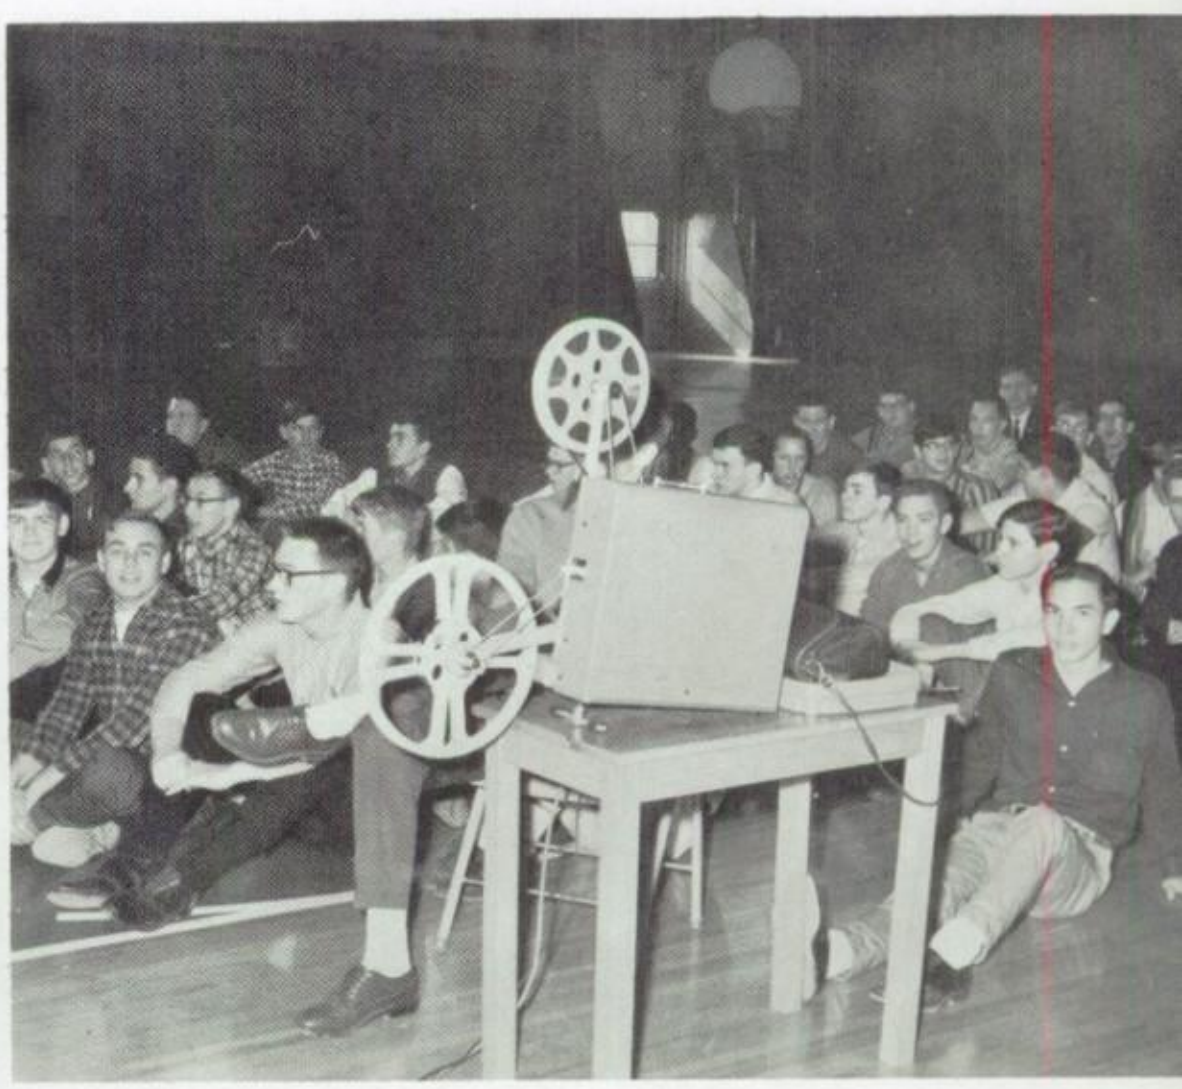
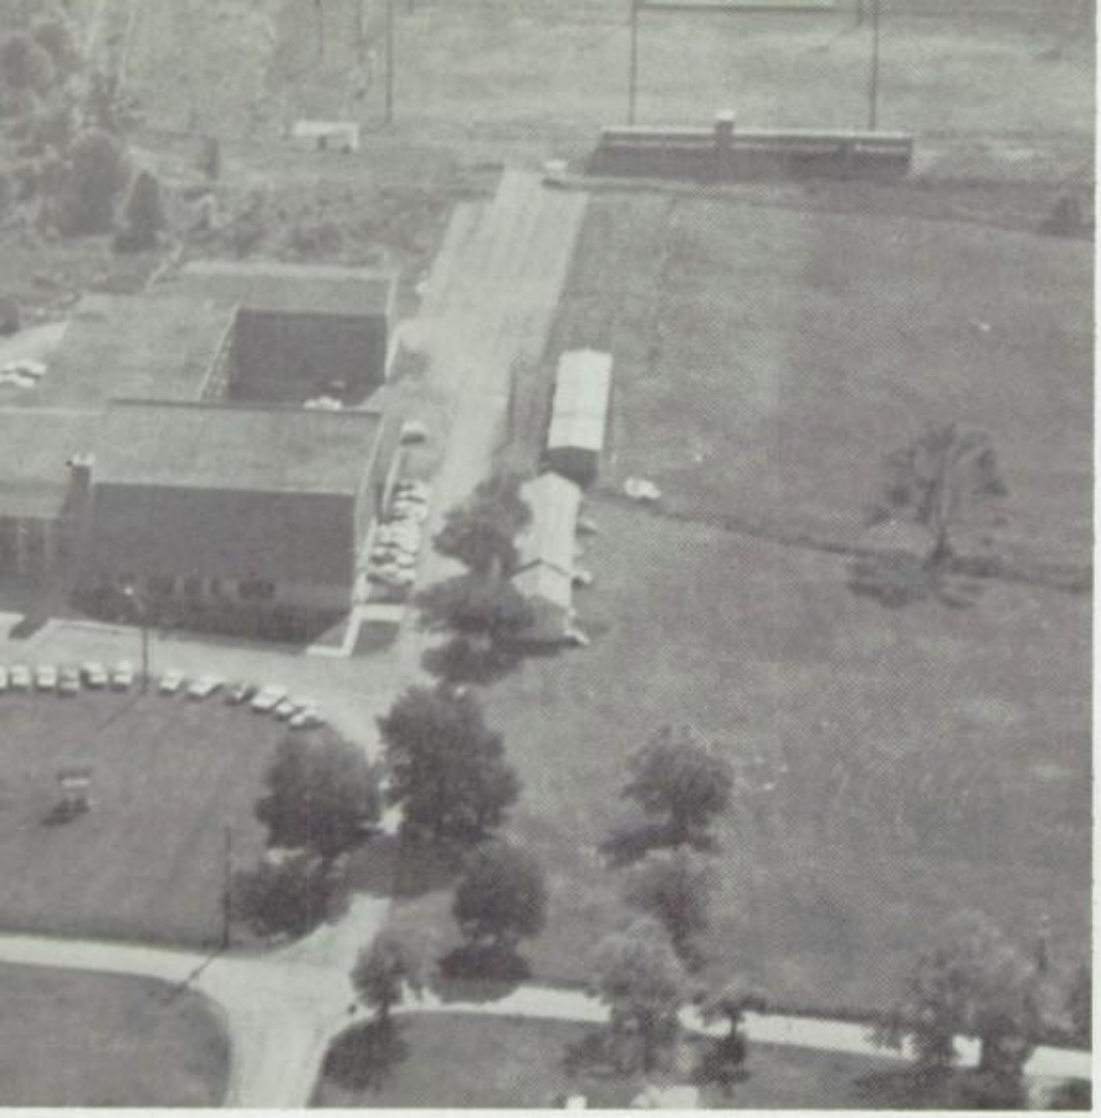
Dedication

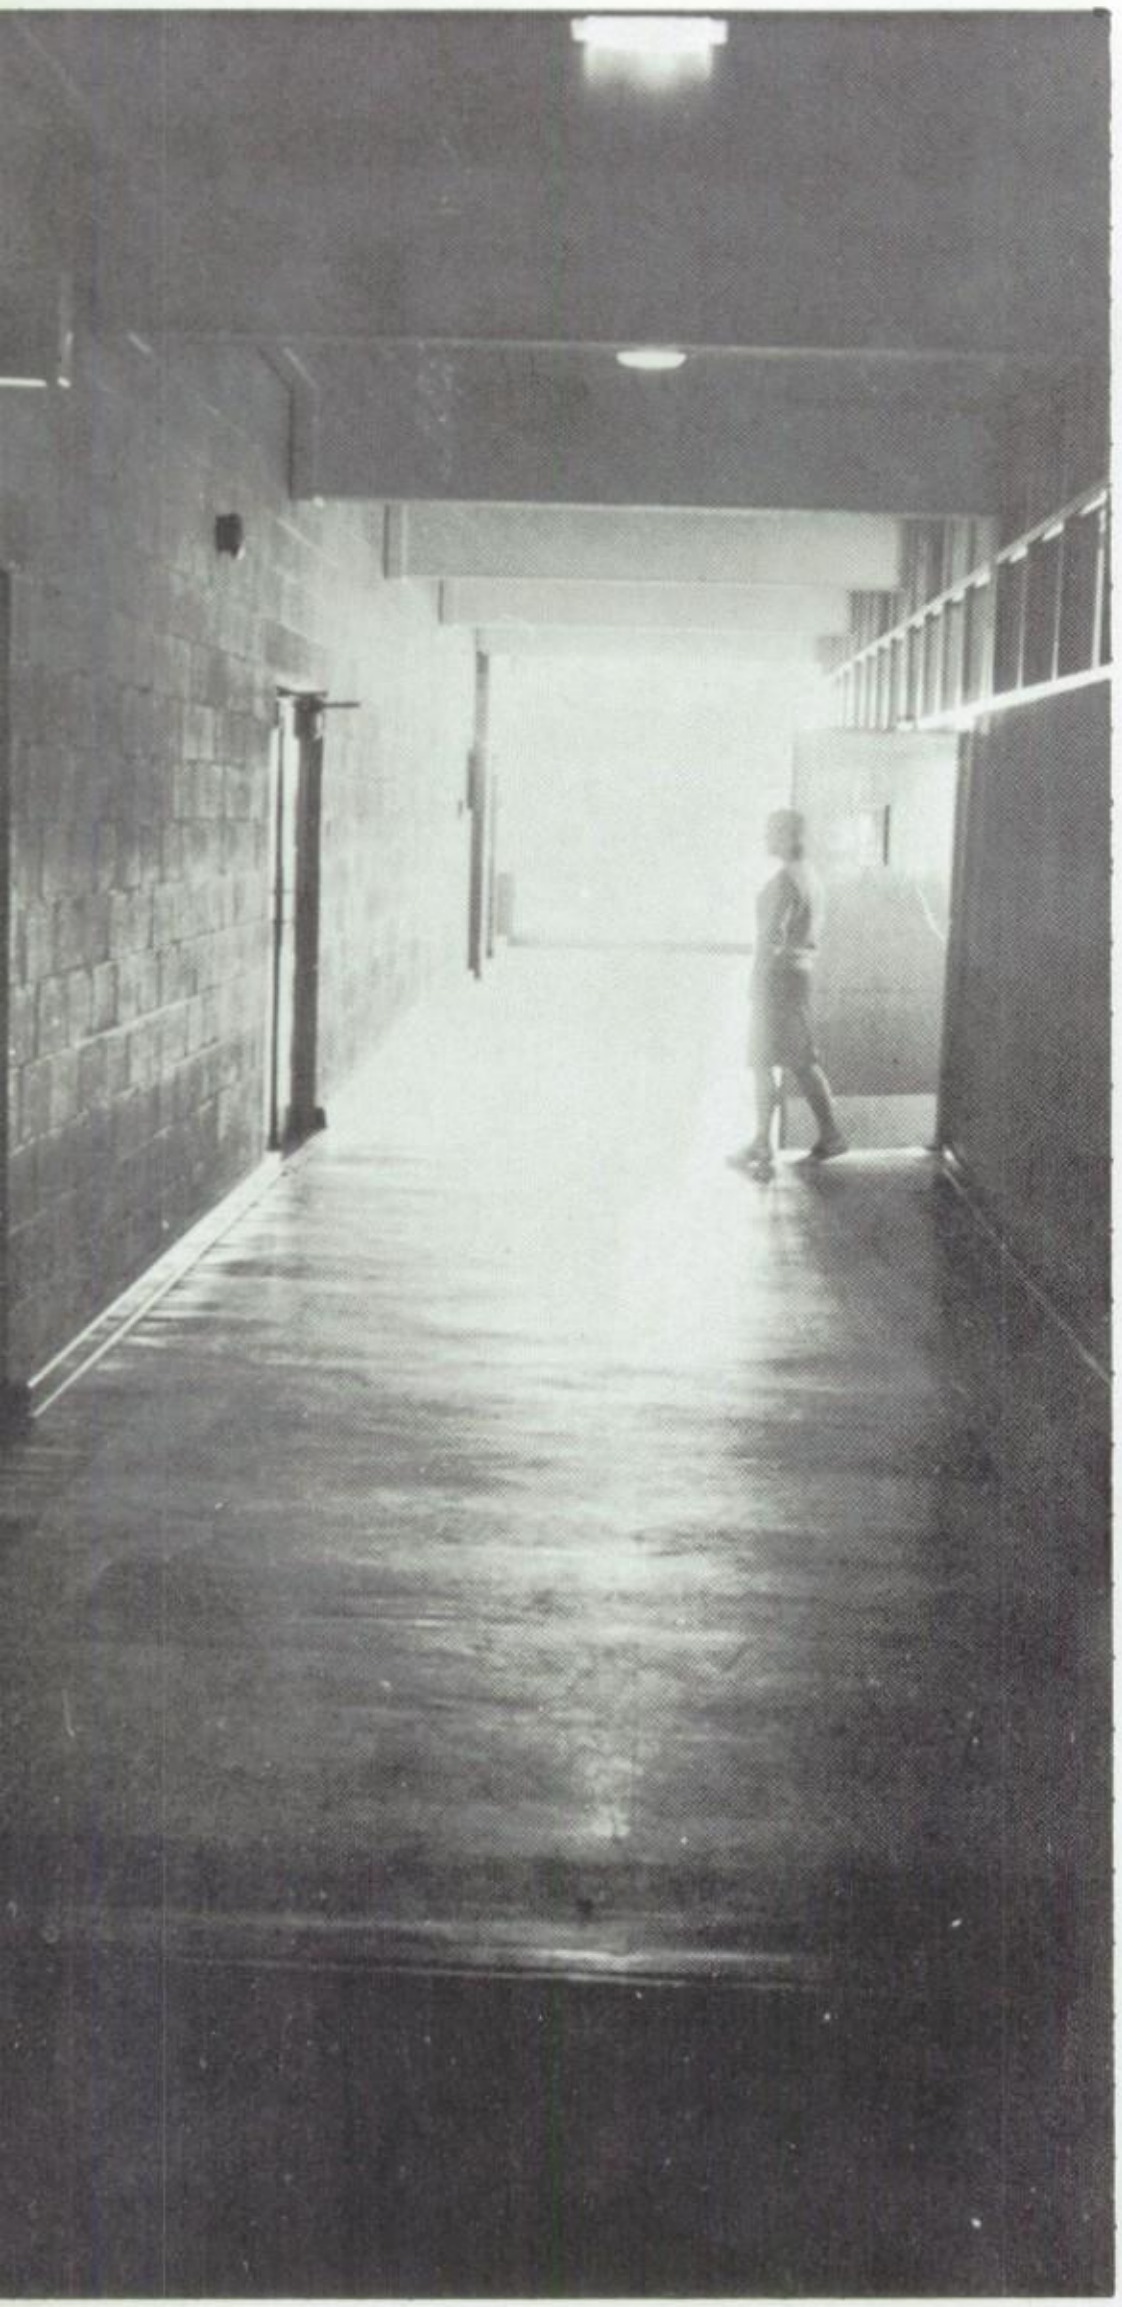
A man amid the mass during most of the first decade. During all of our years he was here. Sometimes sharing our sorrow. When rings didn't come and averages began to go. Always having time and a smile. For forensics. For our prom. For student government. For caps and gowns and belles and beaux. For us. Our friend he was all the while. Thus to him we give our hearts. Marcus Lee Shannon, our friend.



Ten years. Maplewood High. From oblivion to tradition. This is the story of year ten. A story of students. Shoving from class to class. Conflict of minds in debate. The agony. The ecstasy. Of growing. Learning. Moulding and maturing. A moment now to look back. On the homework, the proms, lectures, l a u g h t e r , tears, dates, classes, ball games, and friendships of it all. While looking toward the second decade. What past? What future? What present? Year ten, our year.







Maplewood. "Our Alma Mater." Cheers for a victorious team swell from proud Panthers. A quiet moment to think. Pushing and shoving to beat the bell six times a day. This was '65-'66. Over? Yes. Forgotten? No.

ORGANIZATIONS

At the beginning, new plans, fresh goals. Under able leadership clubs flourish, move forward. Some plans are completed; some goals reached. Meetings. Dances. Programs. Projects. Parties. Co-operating without conforming; individualism without antagonism. Yet there is the disappointment of goals not reached, of plans formulated but not realized. Perhaps these will be attained in the second decade.

The seal carried the theme. Perspective gained by looking back. Yet looking ahead, toward the second decade.

Ideas interchanged. Young minds working as one.

Under a blazing sun, practice was begun. Practice, Practice. Plays. Move when you're told or get crushed. The football machine was growing. Each new play was an added part. Each new part an advantage.

The maroon machine was to crush many teams. It was also to taste defeat. Defeat borne proudly. Conduct of a sportsman and a gentleman.

Best year. Best all-round team. Best team effort. Boys became men. Tactical wizards. Good sports. Our signs made headlines. District. Region. World. We conquered these. Not by measurable victory. Not because they were first team to make the Region V. Because champs are made of steel. Courtesy. Skill.

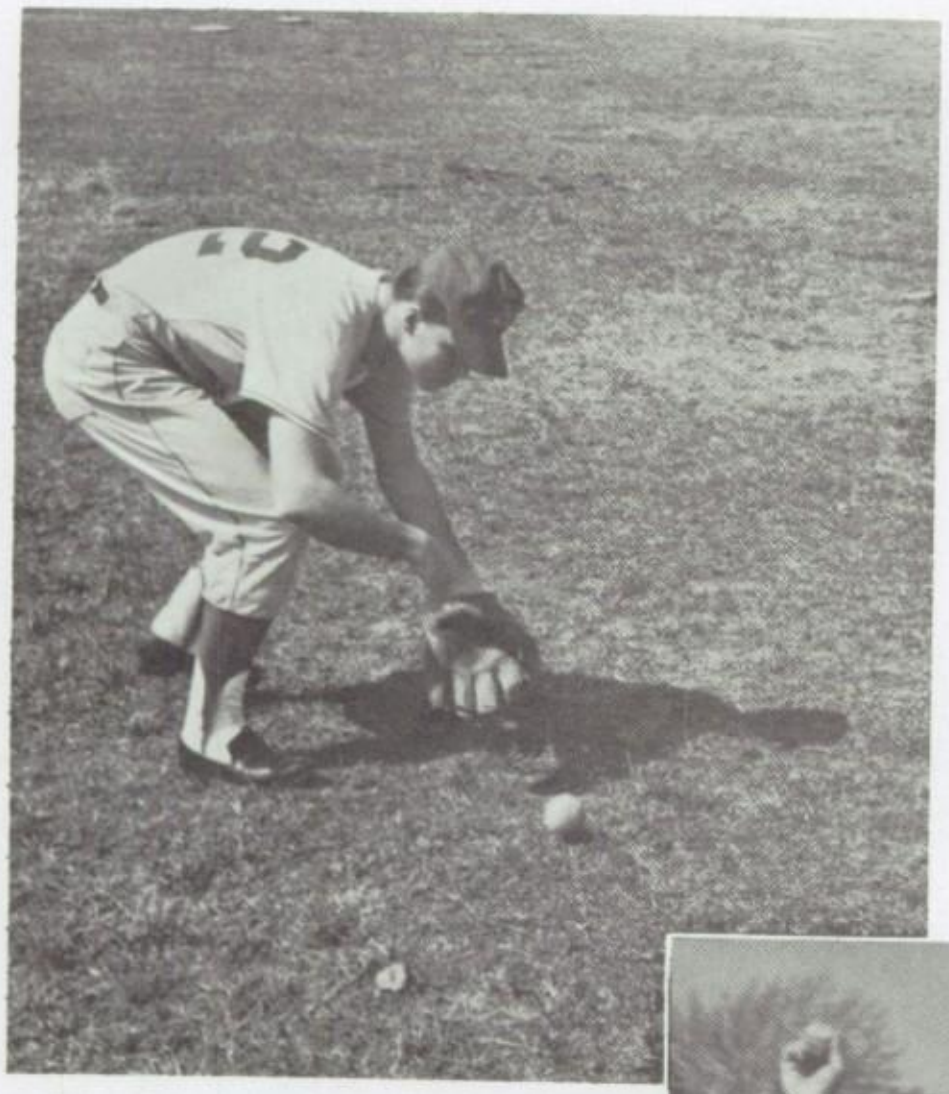
HURLERS, BATTERS CATCH SEASON

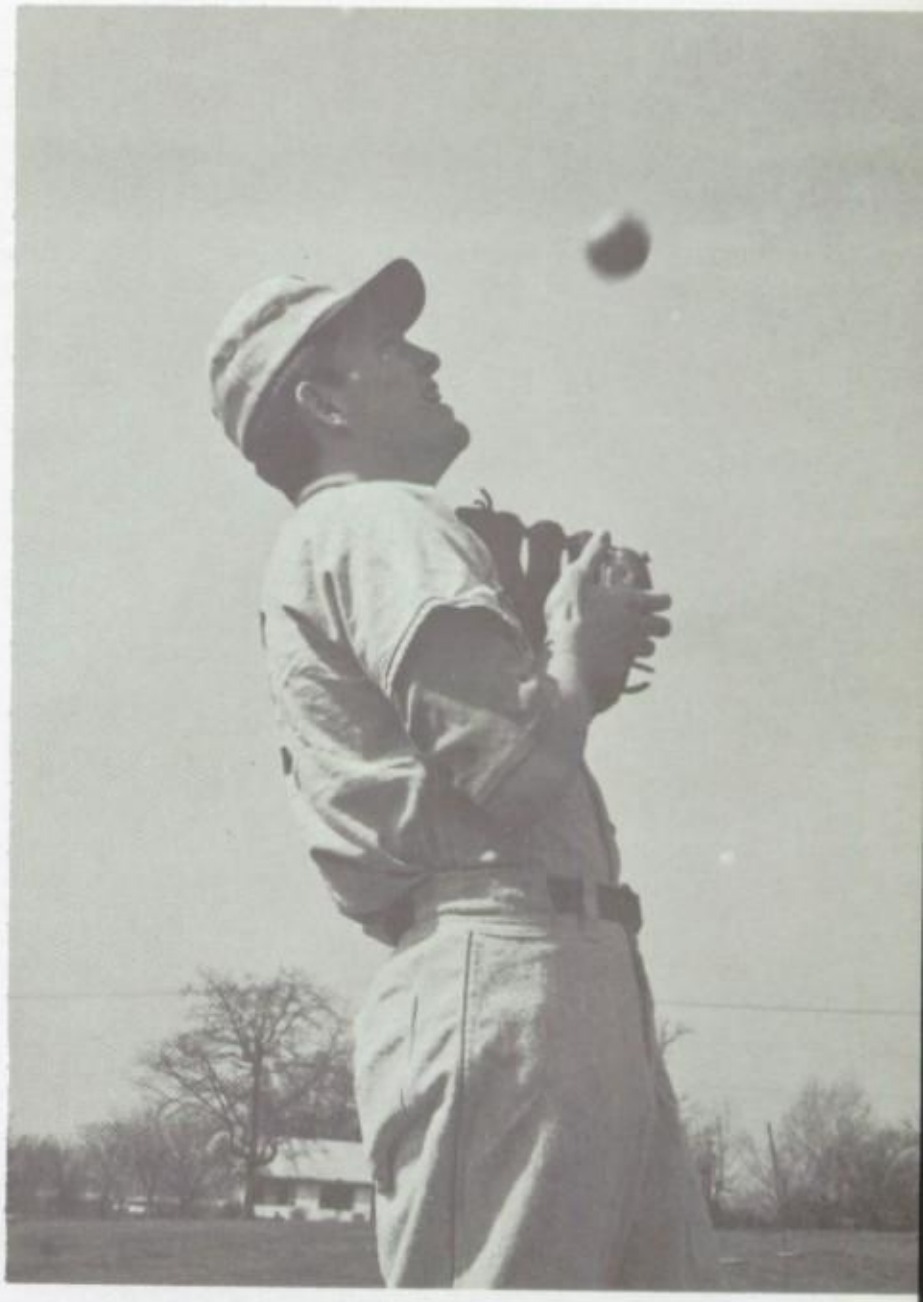
Wind-up. Pitch. Crack of the bat signifies another successful Panther team. Although practice was moved from a lower area to a higher one, season began victoriously. At times we had Wills. Mantle. Koufax. At others. No joy in Mudville. For it's one. Two. Three strikes you're out! That's the old ball game.

Gifted glove grabs a bouncing ball.

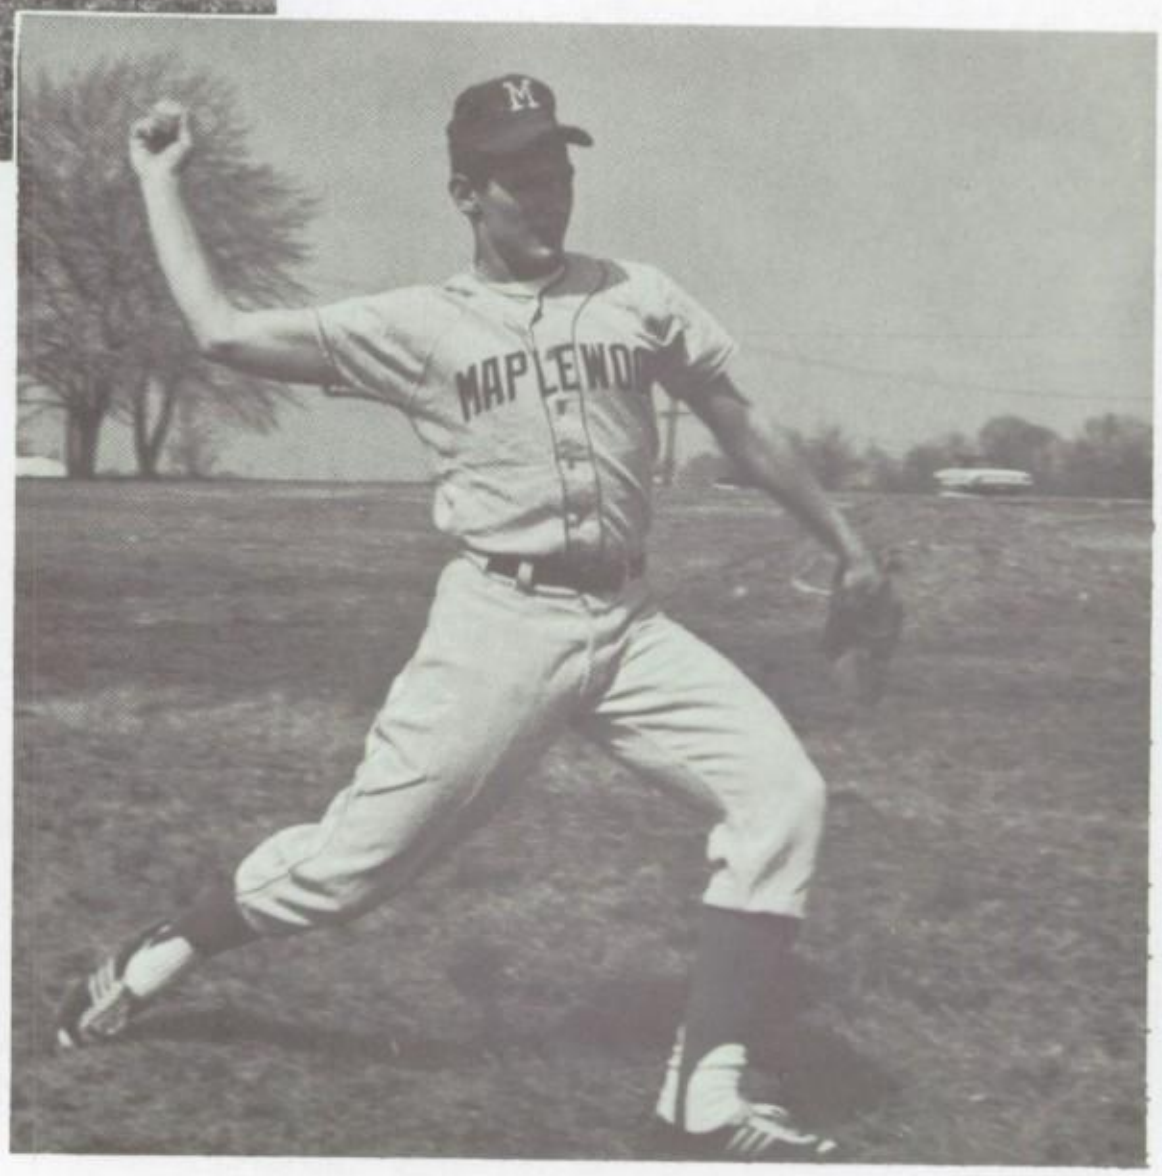
Boasting before the ball game. Confidence. Not conceit. Pride of a great ball club.

Grabbing a grounder. Initiative of the infield.



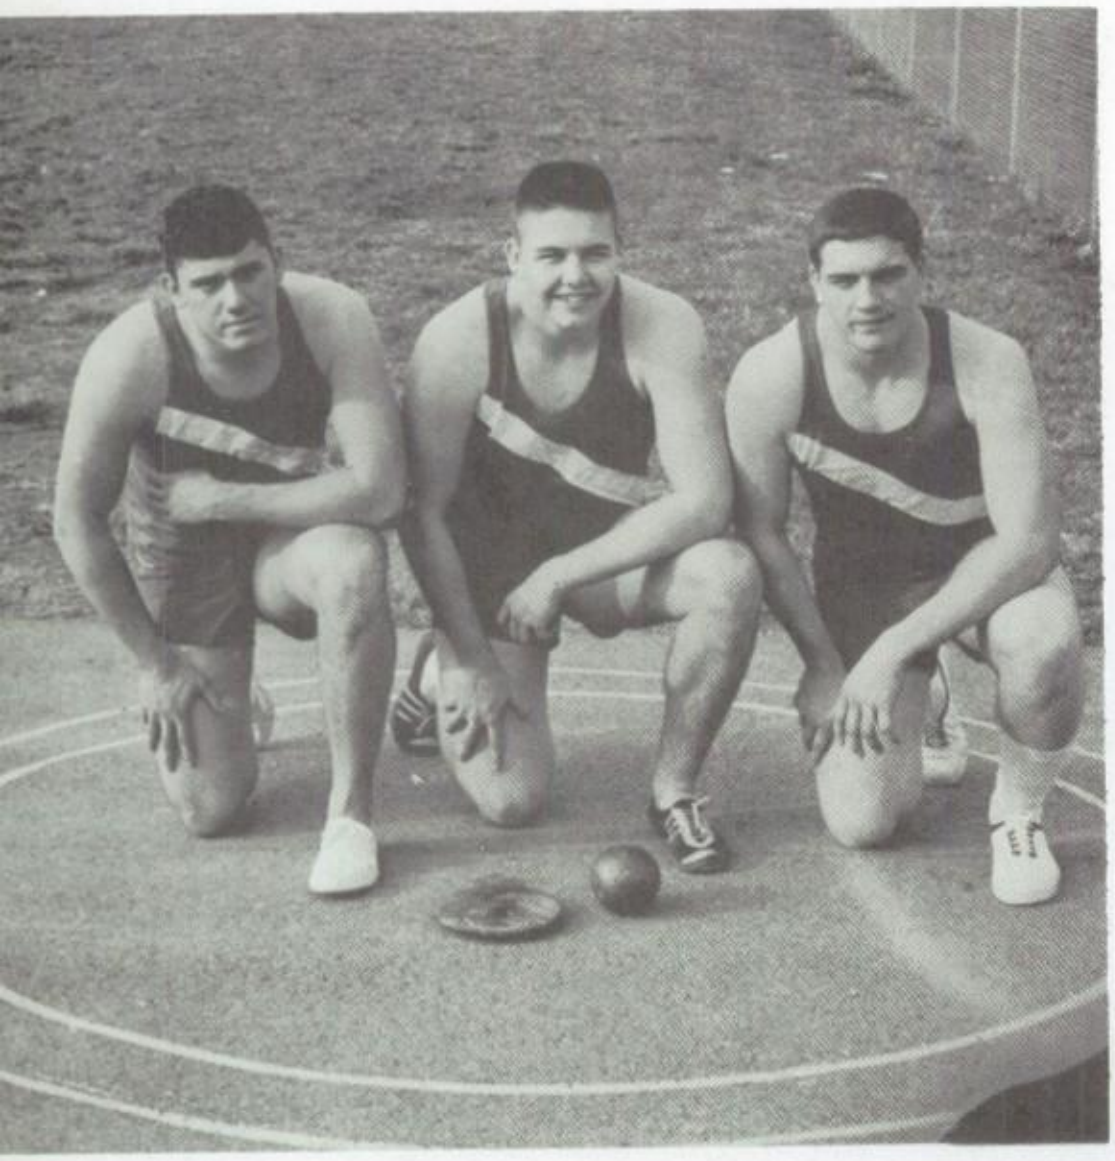


Fielding a fly. Outstanding outfield.



Long stretch. Fast ball.

THINCLADS PASS



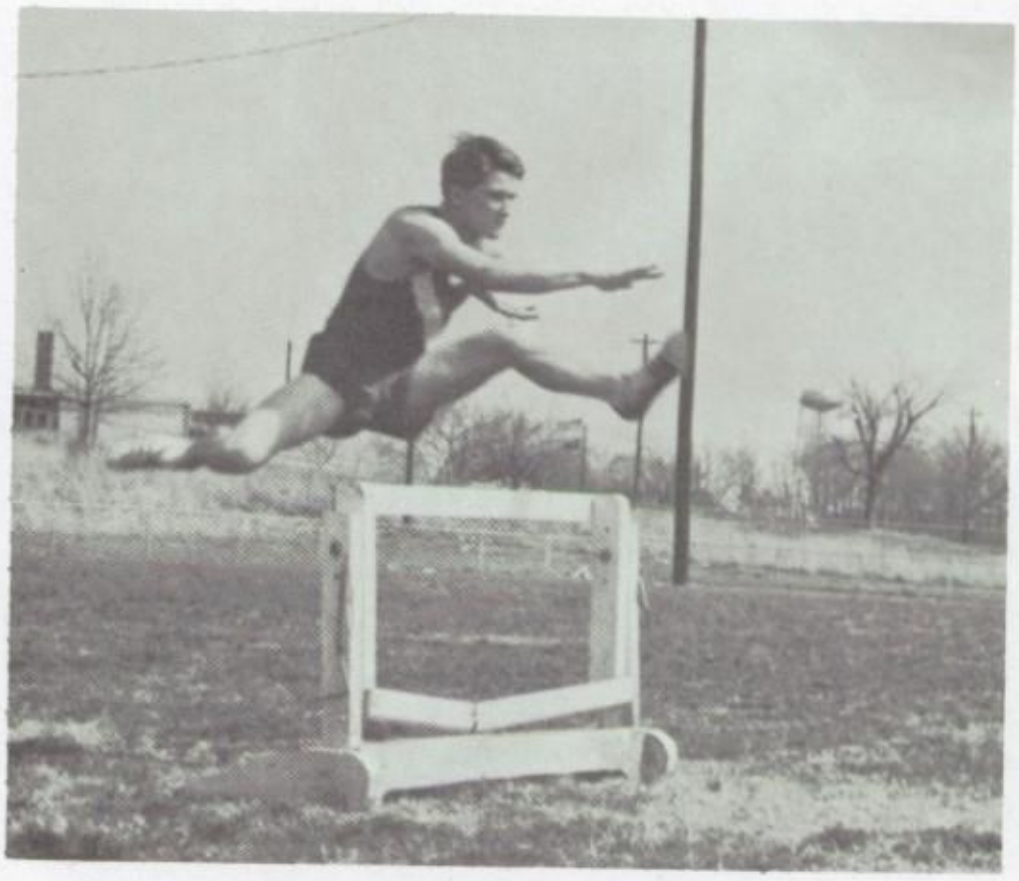
Strongmen put the muscle to the shot. Discus.

High step. Over the high hurdle.

The big baton. Made the 880. 440. State.

BATON FROM VICTORY TO VICTORY

Thinclads at the marks. The starter triggers the action. Race. Goal. Determination. Marathon in manpower. Wild triumph. Quiet failure. All make the race of life. Some overcome obstacles. Hurdle problems, great, small. Others lose. With lack of effort. Dying determination. No outlook on the outcome. Yet, there is the steady. Driving. Hurting. Panting. Who try. And try. And try. And succeed at effort. Attain a place.



Reaching. Stretching. A leg in the lead.

Thinclad at the mark. Eight lettermen. Eight men in a marathon.

JUNIOR HIGH CHEERLEADERS

Jackie Brasel, Elma Allen, Cathy Compton, Co-Captain, Deb bie Stroud, Captain, Jeanne Blackford, Patricia Vaughn, Marilyn Johnson.

CHEERS LIVEN SPIRIT

"You've got that ball, now go, go, go!" A cheer. Yes. But much more. Pride. Leadership. Victory whether won or lost. Junior high cheerleaders brought to life the spirit of eleven. Of five. Of teams. Of seven, eight, nine. Maplewood Junior.

Deb bie Stroud, Captain, Cathy Compton, Co-Captain

Spirit of seven at the sidelines.

Get a head with the ball, team.

Raising a flag of victory. Attaining the unattainable.

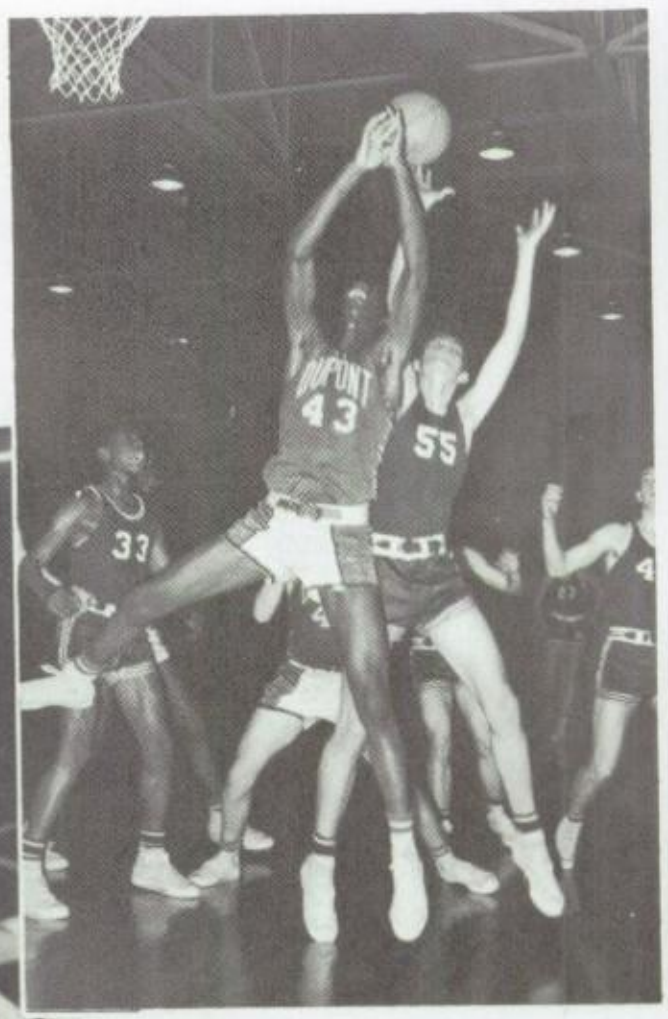
Off the floor. In the air. Reaching for victory.

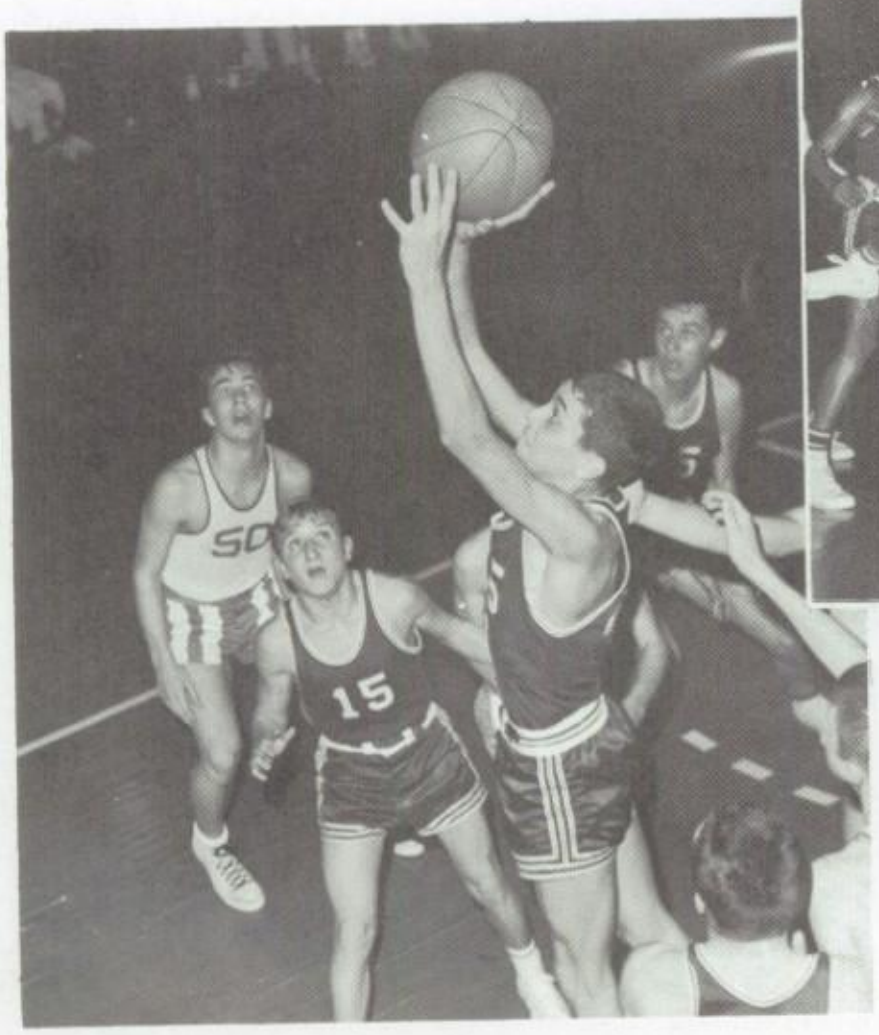
PANTHERS NET VICTORIES

Young men training. Hoping to match a challenge. Challenge of confidence. Pride. Defeat slowed, not halted, their progress. Still they fought, won. Continued to fight supported. This was a team. Team challenge. Team victory.

On the rebound. Panthers out-spring all. Extra efforts. Extra points.

Big Ricky Rogers has to fight hard for this rebound.





All-Tournament Gary Tomlin anxiously waits to spring for a rebound.

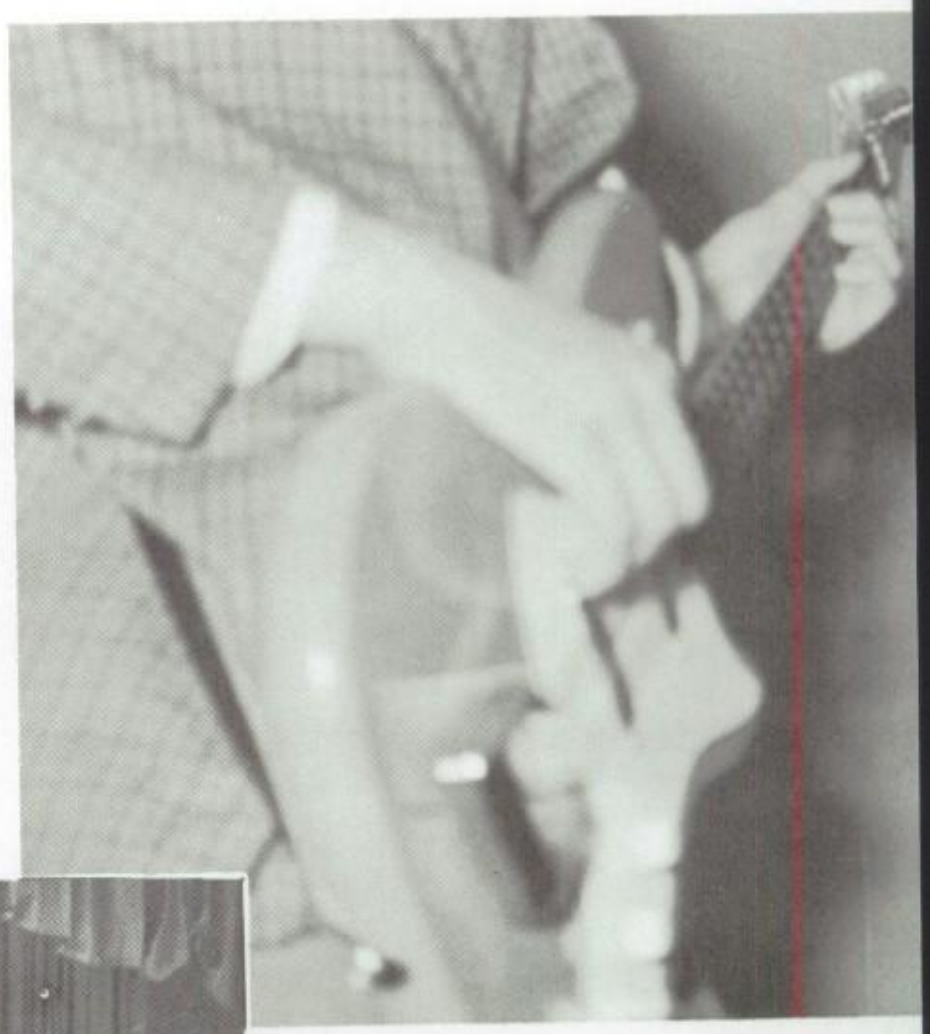
MAPLEWOOD HIGH SCHOOL
NASHVILLE TENNESSEE

FEATURES

A time, for dress, for grandeur, for joy. An occasion. For dancing, for corsages, for school spirit and queens. A page of pictures for memories of happy times passed, of friends, of places and nights.



The crowning moment.

Cheerleaders Sandra Carver, Dianne Estes, Janice Gammon, Melonyee Compton, and Marlene Tomlinson precede the queen in the parade.

HOMECOMING

Queen. Floats. Spirit swells as the Panthers pounce. Hopes for the students attending, memories for the alumni returning. The Alma Mater, tearfully, happily sung. Reigning was Queen Frances McAfee. Attending were Senior Sheila Kirkpatrick and Junior Cheryl Terry.

Attendants Cheryl Terry and Sheila Kirkpatrick add color to the float.

Co-captains and attendants pay tribute to the queen.

Arthur. The Yankee. Someone's court.

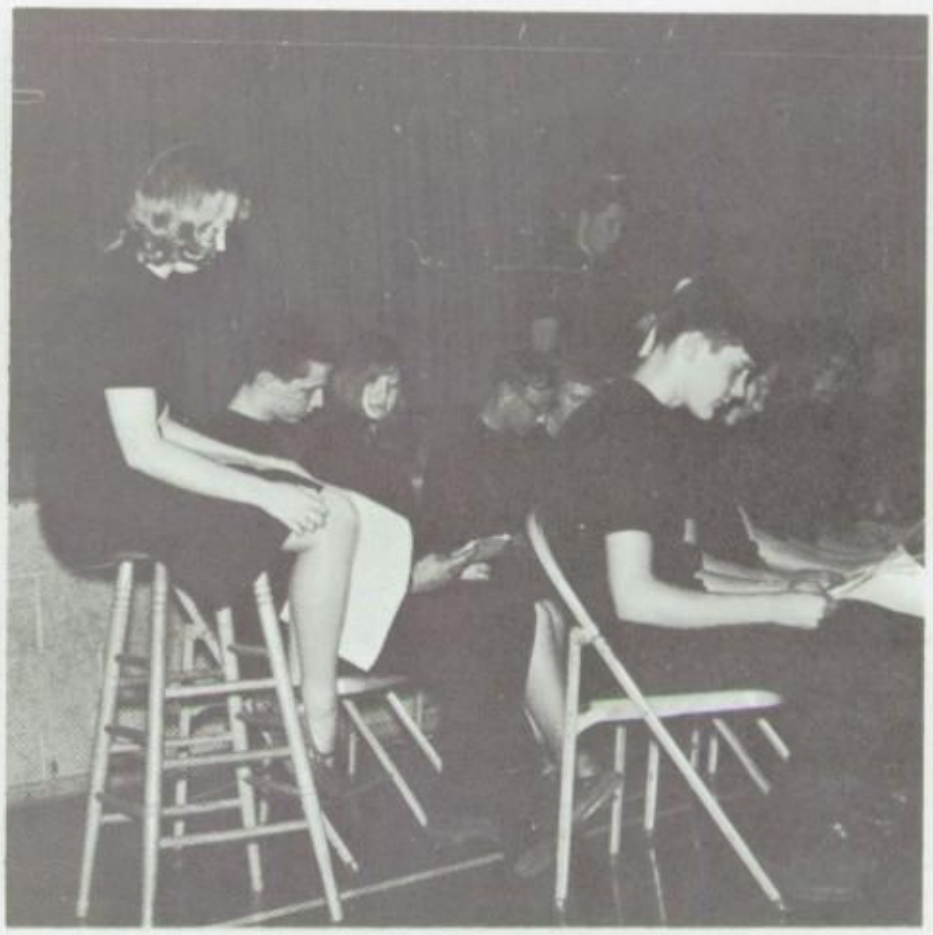
THESPIANS

A face behind a mask. A character. Lines. Cues. Entrances. Exits. Grease paint and costume. Drama. Youthful players in an ancient art. Moderns interpret the classics. The challenge of a role. A role apart from today. Talent to deliver. Theme. Plot. Talent to act in the past. Remain in the future.

Teenager's tragedy via teens.

Romeo. Impetuosity. Youth. The desire for love at any cost.

Prodigious giant is captured. A king is appalled. Surprised. Afraid.



Here is conflict. Addiction to a coarse society.

A Connecticut Yankee. King Arthur. Merlin. ExCaliber. A tale of days and knights. The Modern and the Medieval mixed. Mark Twain's touch to an old story.

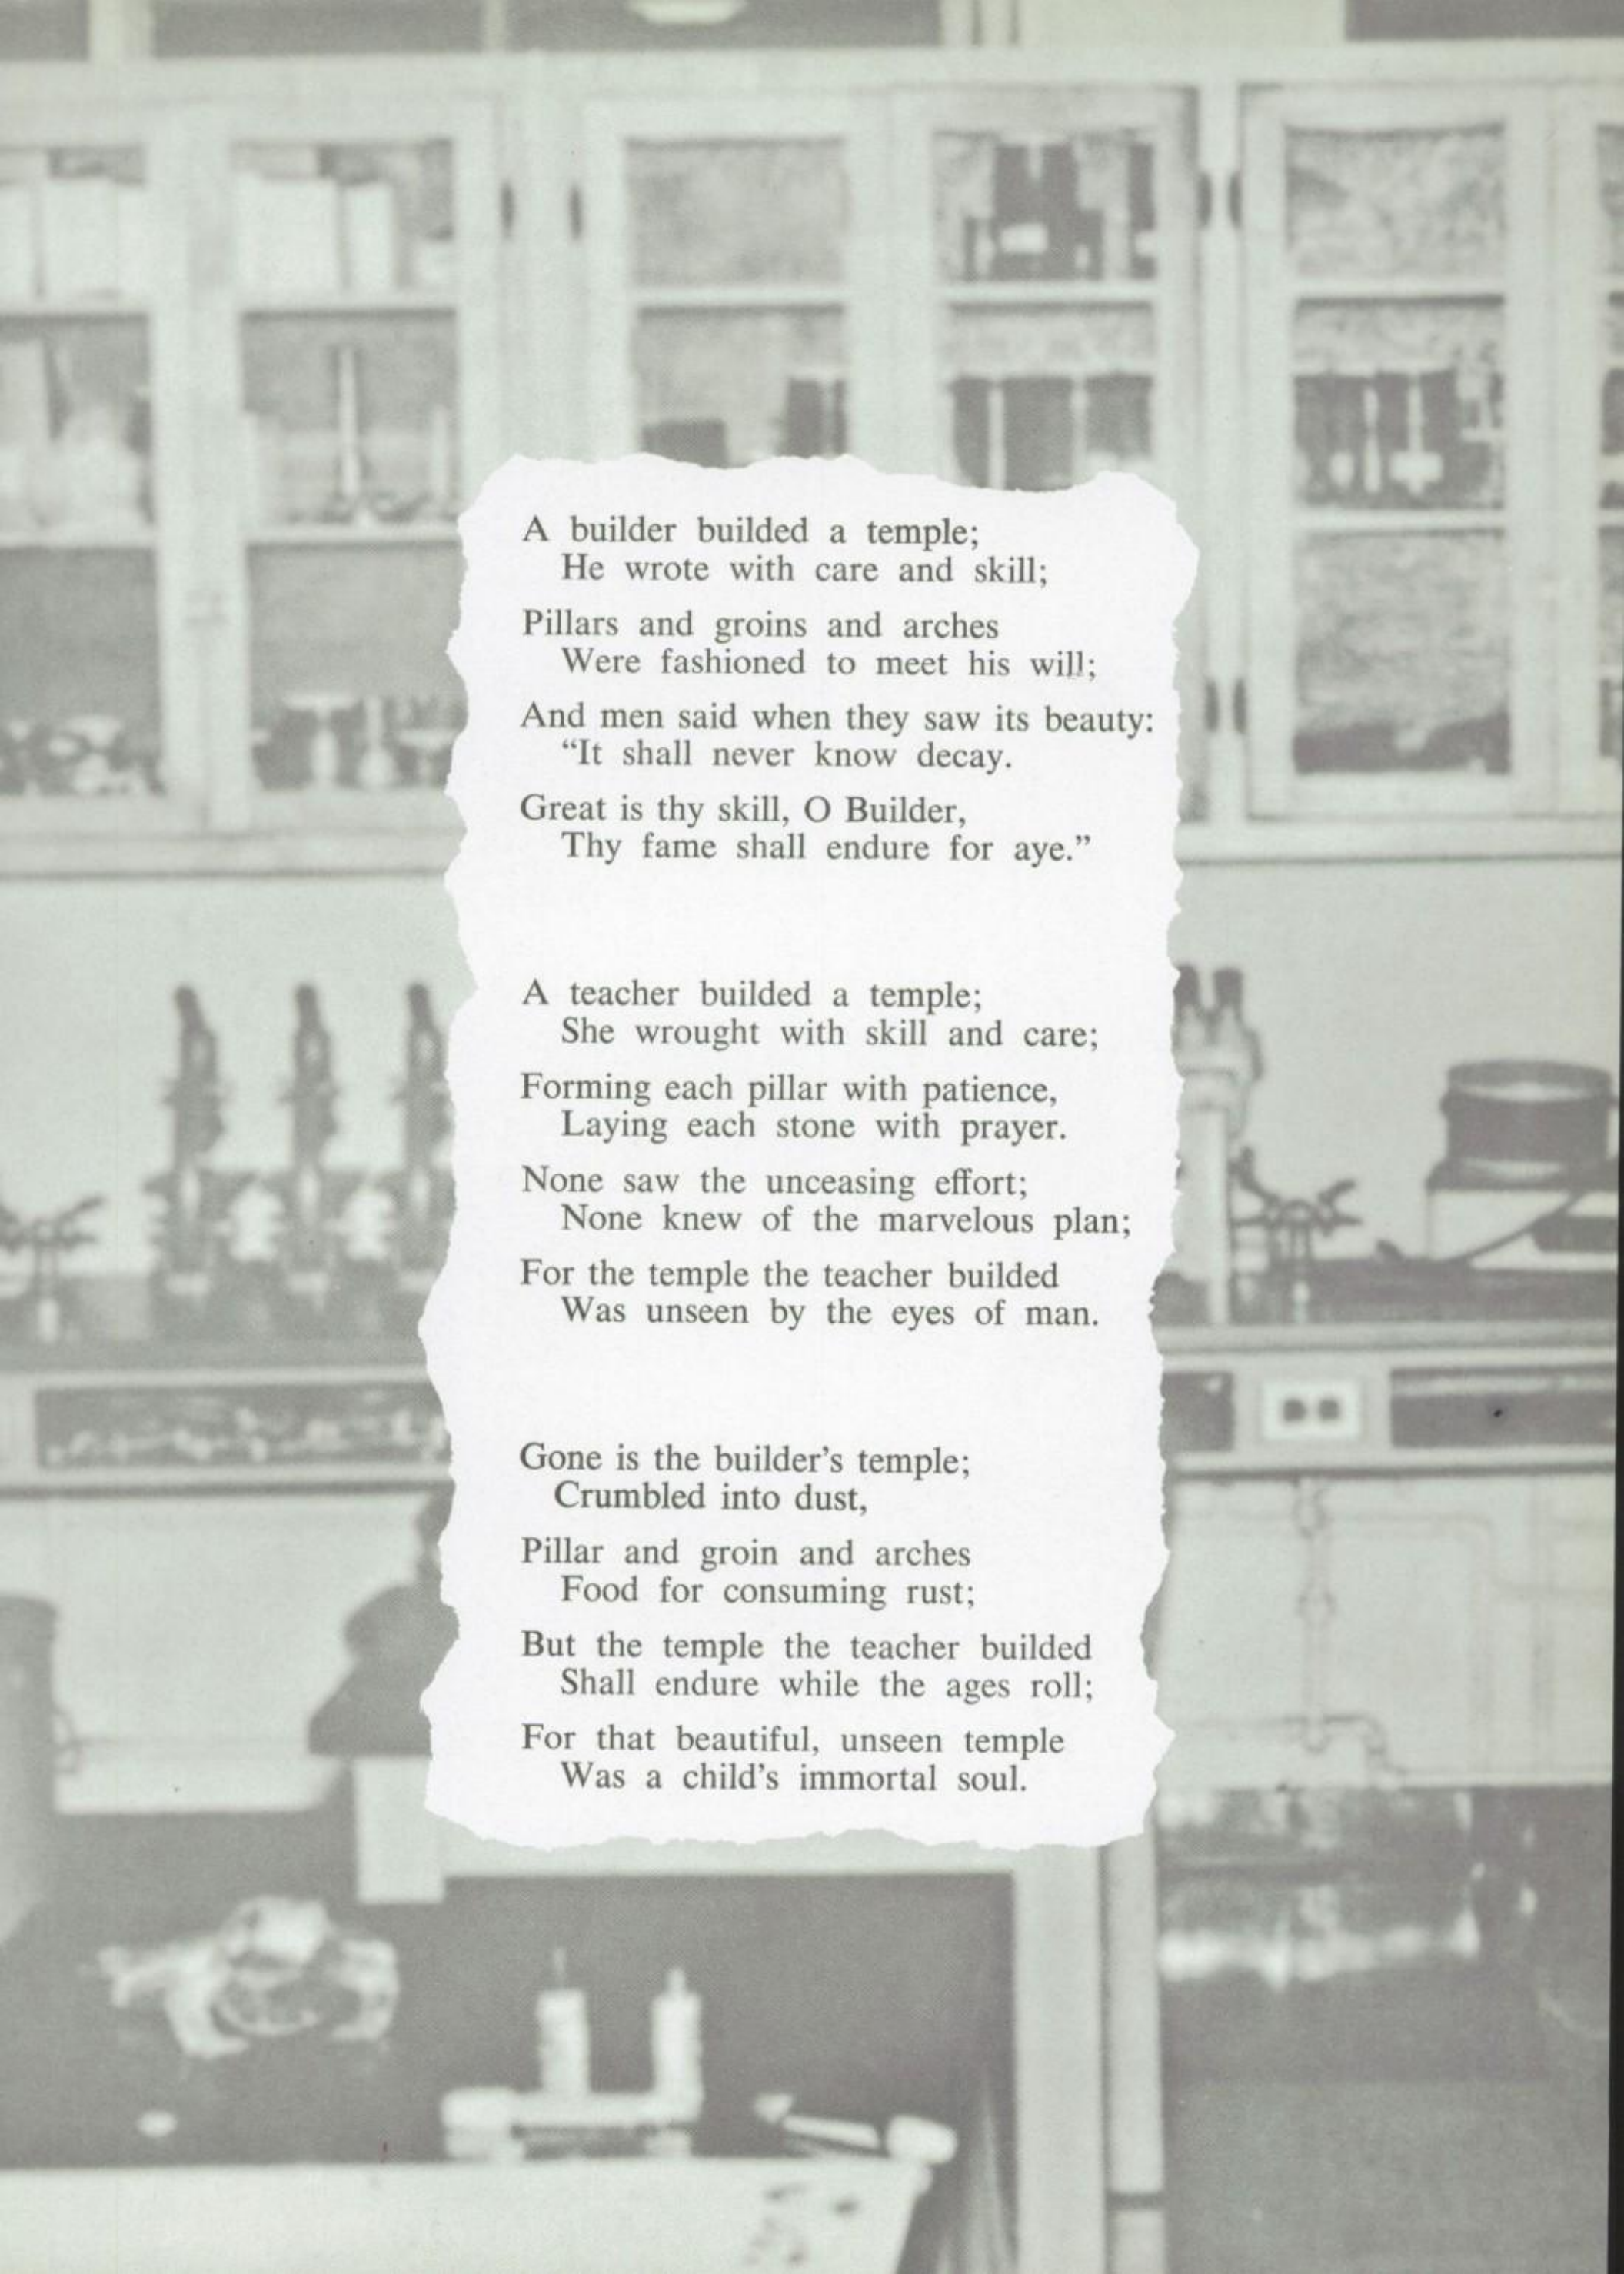
In Memoriam

MRS. AURELIA CORBITT
December 24, 1928-March 5, 1966

She lived a life in service for others, sowing seeds of love and understanding which will blossom into mature flowers perfuming the earth and which will be harvested in eternity. "Life passes; work is permanent. Deeds never die."



A builder builded a temple;
He wrote with care and skill;

Pillars and groins and arches
Were fashioned to meet his will;

And men said when they saw its beauty:
"It shall never know decay.

Great is thy skill, O Builder,
Thy fame shall endure for aye."

A teacher builded a temple;
She wrought with skill and care;

Forming each pillar with patience,
Laying each stone with prayer.

None saw the unceasing effort;
None knew of the marvelous plan;

For the temple the teacher builded
Was unseen by the eyes of man.

Gone is the builder's temple;
Crumbled into dust,

Pillar and groin and arches
Food for consuming rust;

But the temple the teacher builded
Shall endure while the ages roll;

For that beautiful, unseen temple
Was a child's immortal soul.

Grammar is math. New angle to old problems.

Improvisation and adlibs. Instant comedy as two hearts are reunited seventh grade style.

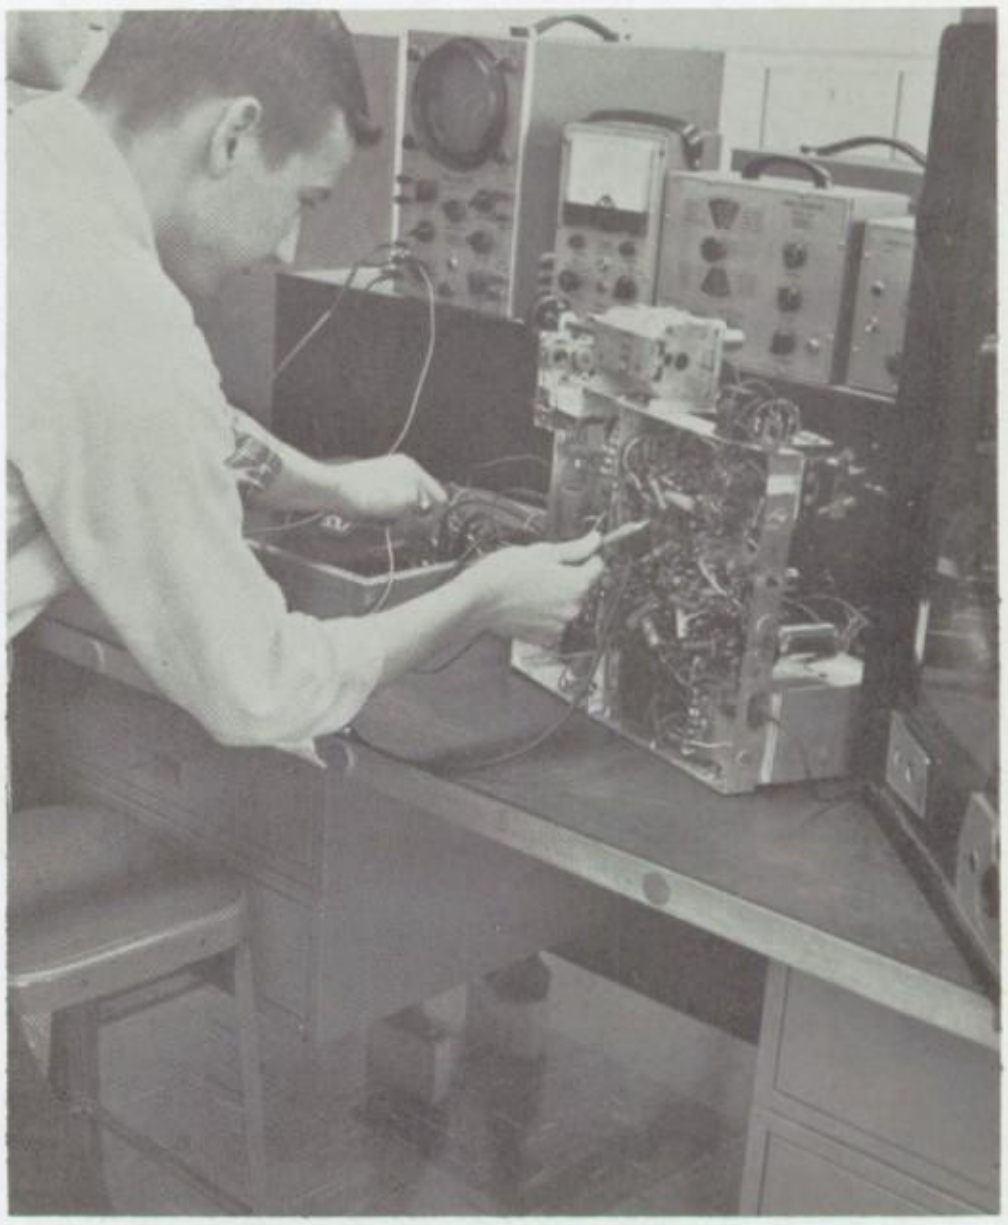
The bell during a blizzard. Snow—Heaven's gift to the student. Today's trouble means tomorrow's holiday.

Jimmy Alley — Turning a part. Tooling a vocation of the metal of knowledge.

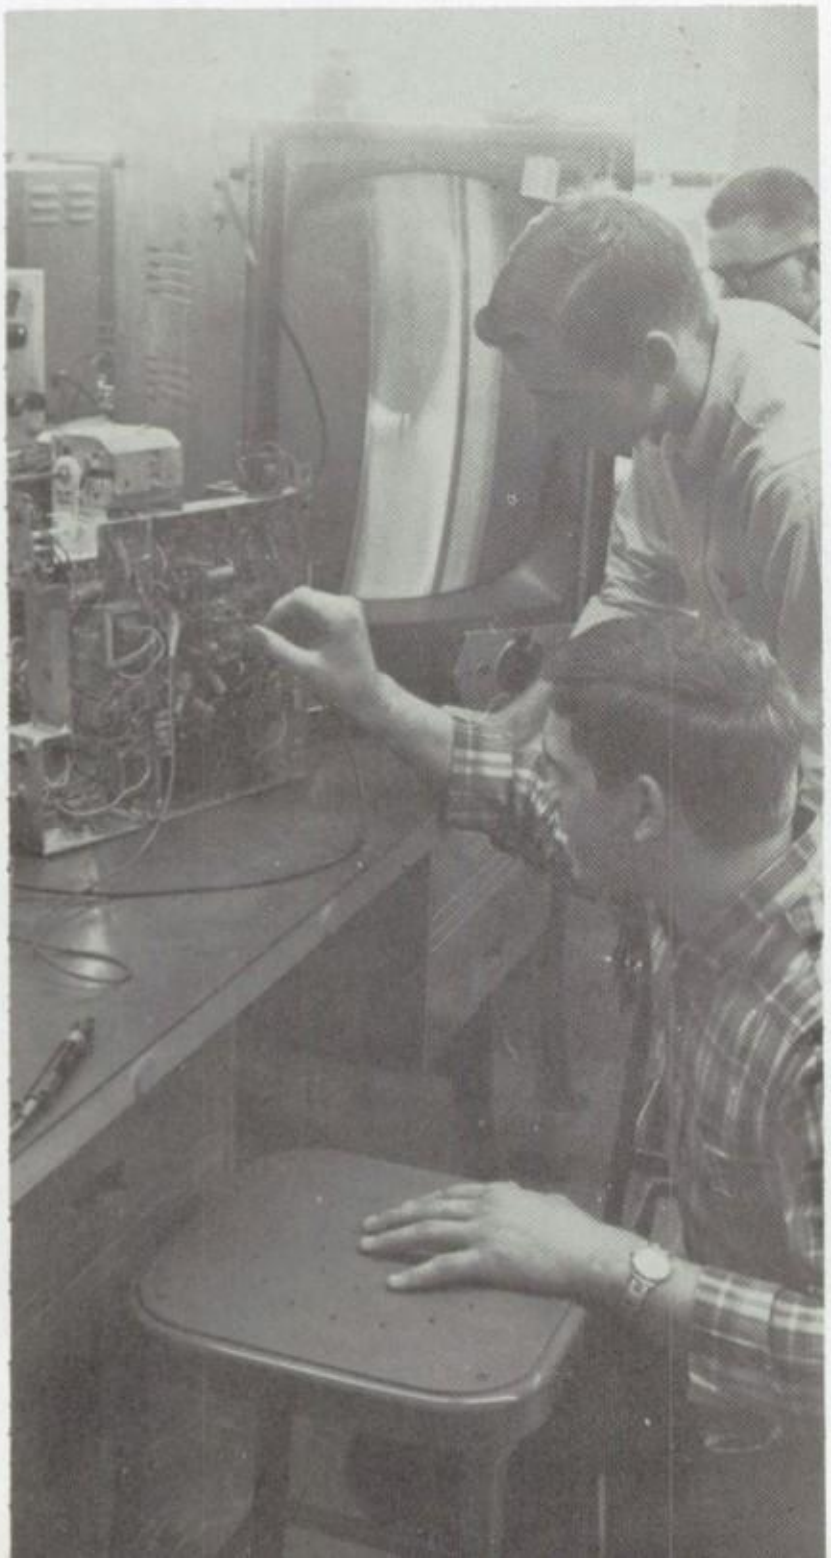
Drill press—An adjustment. An accomplishment. A machine. A mind. A vocation.

VOCATIONAL TRAINING

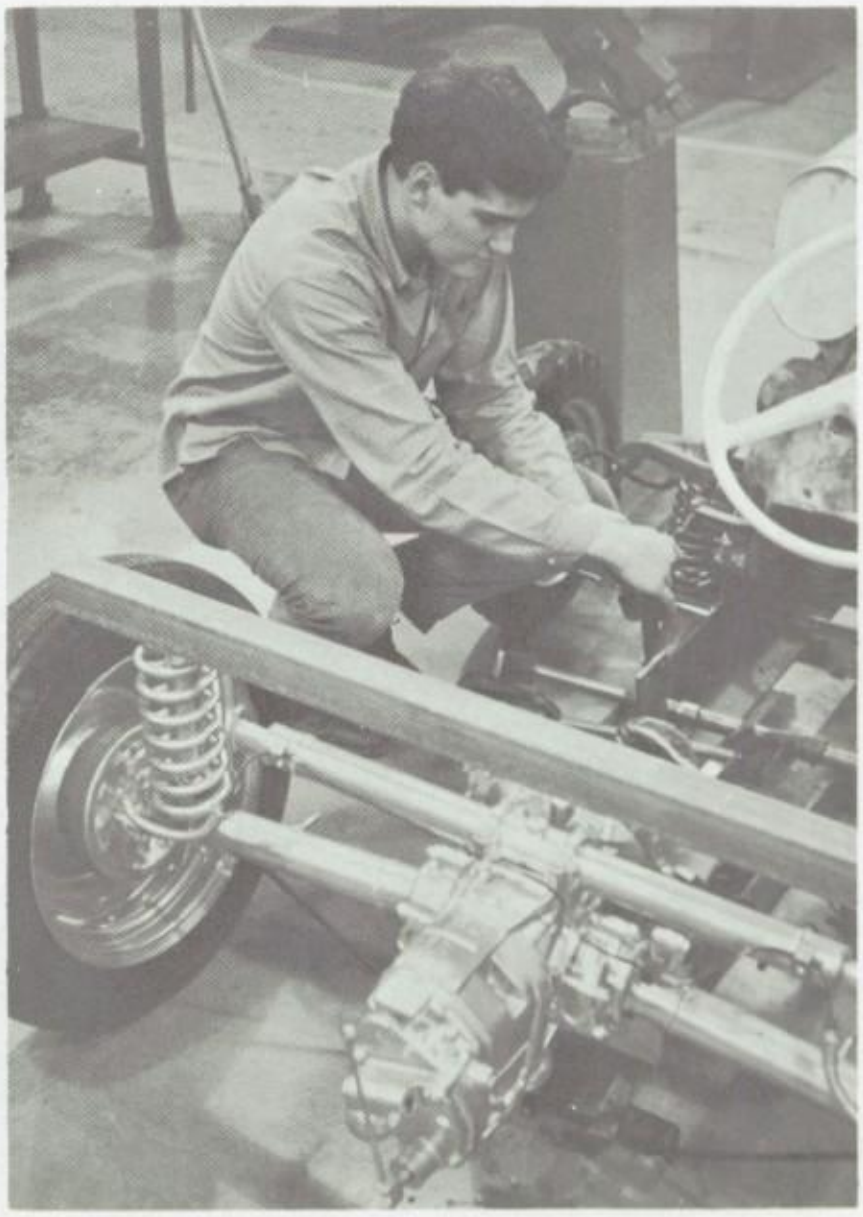
Training for another vocation. Framework for a life's work. Challenge for the future. Electronics. Preparation for greater achievement. Not the path of least resistance. General metals. A trade. Satisfaction of a well-made project. Fine quality. Machine shop. Tooling out apprenticeship. Construction of quality parts. Training. Printing the circuit of life.



Larry Jones—After construction, testing. From testing comes the pride of success.



Larry Jones and David Filson—Tomorrow's technicians. Today's technology.



A project. For fun. For personal pleasure.

Captained by Wally Crowder the football team captured the Exchange Bowl championship.

HONORS CLIMAX FIRST DECADE

Firsts to fill the final year of our first decade. Bringing status to our school. First football championship. First All-American newspaper. First national yearbook awards. First Most Valuable Girl Basketball Record-breaker. First Girl Merit Scholar finalist. First Vanderbilt Science Fair Grand Prize Winner. Firsts for us. Topping ten years of rising action. Giving incentive. Toward the second decade of success.

With Kenneth Hull and Joel Barnett, Gloria Talley was named finalist among National Merit Scholars. She was the first Maplewood girl to be thus honored.

Senior science major Mike Rudd won the grand prize in the Vanderbilt Science Fair with his Ion driven aircraft.
